BACKGROUND CHECK AND PUBLIC DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

NOTICE REGARDING BACKGROUND CHECK: The City of Sequim will conduct a background check of any potential Park Host and the persons who will reside on-site with the Park Host. The background check will be through the Washington State Patrol and/or an equivalent federal law enforcement agency. Pursuant to RCW 43.43.834(5) this information will be kept confidential. The City will provide you with the law enforcement agency's response within 10 business days of receipt as required by RCW 43.43.834(4). A conviction record is not necessarily a bar to acceptance. However, the Park Host Contract with the City is contingent upon the City's receipt and review of the background check.

NOTICE REGARDING PUBLIC DISCLOSURE: Pursuant to the Washington Public Records Act, this Intake Form constitutes a public record and is subject to public release upon request, with appropriate redactions. Under Chapter 42.56 RCW, the residential addresses and telephone numbers of volunteers are exempt from disclosure.

PARK HOST SERVICES INCLUDE:

- * Being on duty on site in Carrie Blake Community Park during high use periods, i.e. weekends, special events.
- * Greeting and assisting visitors, informing them of park and facility rules, answering questions and receiving comments about the park, facility, and surrounding area.
- * Distributing maps, brochures, and facility information.
- * Replenishing restroom supplies as needed, ensuring floors are free of litter, light bulbs are functioning, and pet waste stations are supplied.
- * Promoting care of the park by keeping a clean host site and maintaining a neat and orderly appearance around the park by performing minor tasks, such as picking up litter and emptying trash bins.
- * Distribution and safekeeping of common use recreational equipment, including but not limited to horseshoes, bocce balls, basketballs, and shuffleboard equipment.
- * Have a visible presence with a sufficient and comfortable knowledge of park and facility rules of use, as well as familiarity with other local amenities and attractions.
- * Watching for and reporting activities within the park that require attention from City personnel.
- * Contacting City parks, public works personnel, or law enforcement when situations arise.
- * Performing all duties in a safe manner, using appropriate personal protective equipment.

Park Hosts are not responsible for enforcing rules.

Examples of general tasks:

- Picking up litter
- Cleaning ash out of picnic area grills
- Brushing off picnic tables; sweeping areas
- Reporting any damage, vandalism, or questionable activities to Park's staff, and (in situations that appear to threaten public safety) to law enforcement
- Parking assistance for events
- Monitoring trash accumulations throughout the park; emptying smaller cans into centralized dumpsters as necessary
- Regular presence patrolling
- Maintaining a logbook of activities
- Opening and/or closing park gates or facility entrances
- Relocating or cleaning up around garbage cans
- Sweeping cobwebs off buildings
- Keeping bulletin board information up to date
- Placing and removing temporary signs as needed
